

CLASSROOM TRAINING: FIRE AWARENESS

OVERVIEW

Participants will learn the basics in safe planning in a fire emergency response and appropriate judgment when considering the spread of fire or ongoing fire. The course covers how to manage safe evacuation, observation and efficient use of handheld fire extinguishing equipment. Participants must be physically able to work in the selected work environment.

RELEVANT TO

All technicians who access on or offshore Wind Turbines

CLASS SIZE

Maximum 8 people

COURSE LENGTH

4 hours

QUALIFICATION

GWO Fire Awareness

LOCATION

La Muela - Zaragoza, Spain
Franklin - Wisconsin, USA
Them - Silkeborg, Denmark

VALIDITY

24 months

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course will cover:

- An introduction to the training to relay the nature and expectations of the course
- Legislation
- Medical self-assessment
- Fire combustion and spreading
- Fire extinction
- Fire prevention
- Fire fighting with handheld extinguishers (practice)
- Exercises in evacuation from smoke filled area and WTG
- Summing up and evaluation

Recognized under the Global Wind Organisation standard

REGISTER FOR YOUR COURSE

Email: info@alimakservice.com